The following letter from the Collector of Anantapur dated 25 May 1897 Re No 2446

The Tahsildar of Tadpatri reports that the famine work in his office has considerably increased during the last three months owing to the expansion of Relief works in the taluk as is evidenced by the business statistics given in the margin. The one additional clerk sanctioned for this taluk in February last when only two relief works were in progress cannot cope with the growing pressure of work even though the Tahsildar has given him a clerk from his ordinary staff to assist him in the disposal of papers. Since the extra clerk was entertained, five more works and eight Kitchens have been opened and more are under contemplation. Village relief has also been started and is being vigorously pushed on. The Tahsildar applies for three additional clerks as shown in the margin. I am of opinion that the establishment is, at present, absolutely inadequate and that unless it is strengthened, the work especially the scrutiny of nominal rolls &c will get into a hopeless confusion. I have therefore the honor to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained at a very early date for the entertainment of the staff applied for.
