Dated 18th June 1897.

No. 4409 Mui.

READ. the following letter from the Collector of Anantapur, dated
6th June 1897, C.No. $\frac{2835}{8.6.97}$:-

I have the honor to enquire to what tour allowance the Special Loans Tahsildars entertained in this district are entitled. The ordinary Tahsildars are allowed a daily battha of one repee, and my Treasury Deputy Collector considers that these Loans Tahsildars are also entitled to the same allowance.
The

The Special Loans Tahsildar of Anantapur and Kalyandurg who has to do duty in two Talukhs and has naturally to travel over a greater extent with a cart, a pony and other necessary establishment than the ordinary Tahsildars, complains that the ordinary allowance of one rupee a day is hardly sufficient in these days of high prices and requests that travelling allowance and mileage be paid to him according to the Code. This Loans Tahsildar is the permanent Tahsildar of Madaksira on the same pay and considering that he has gained nothing in pay by the transfer the matter, I think, may be favourably considered.

Resolution

The Board is not prepared to recommend that temporary Tahsildars appointed to deal with applications for loans should receive any travelling allowance other than that to which a permanent Tahsildar is entitled.
