HIS EXCELLENCY,

SIR ARTHUR ELIBANK HAVELOCK, G. C. M. G.,

Governor-in-Council,

OOTACAMUND.

The humble petition of D. John Arulanandam Pillai, Head Clerk, Revenue Cinchona Department, Nilgiris.

THROUGH W. M. STANDEN ESQ., DIRECTOR &c.,

SHEWETH,

That your petitioner was entertained as a Clerk in the Govt. Cinchona Department on 1st March 1881. At that time this Department was under the immediate control of the Commissioner for the Nilgiris and, inasmuch as it formed part and parcel of the General Revenue Department of Government your petitioner felt that in accepting an appointment therein, he had before him a large field and fair prospect of promotion, and might hope by assiduity and good work to merit advancement, and in time even the grade of a Deputy Collector.

That after a time the Cinchona Department was separated from the General Revenue Department, and incorporated with the Forest Department, but later on was made into a separate Department, and has so continued ever since.

That not suspecting that these changes would affect his chances of promotion your petitioner continued to qualify himself for promotion by passing the several tests prescribed, and has been successful in completing those required for the position of a Deputy Collector.

That since the year 1885, your petitioner has accordingly made several attempts to obtain a transfer to the General Revenue Department and promotion, but unsuccessfully. His applications have been endorsed with commendation of his past services and kind and encouraging words, but, as the appointments he applied for have been successively filled up, he has had the mortification to find other and younger men junior to himself stepping into these places, while he has been left where he was.

That your petitioner is a Matriculate and he does not deny that the younger men possessed the higher university attainment of a Degree in Arts, but then your petitioner entered the service long before any restriction on promotion was attached to the Matriculation Examination, and there are numerous instances in the Revenue and other large Departments where men, who have not even the Matriculation qualification, have passed him by and become Deputy Collectors. The Matriculation cannot be held, therefore, to be any obstacle to the promotion of your petitioner.

That on the other hand your petitioner has now completed 16 years good service or nearly two thirds of the period required to entitle him to a pension, and begs to submit for your perusal and favourable consideration the several good testimonials he has obtained from officers under whom he has served. Your petitioner thinks therefore he is warranted in attributing his want of success in promotion, not to any want of qualifications but, to the mere fact of his having been drifted, by the isolation of the department in which he has had the honor to serve, away from the larger field of appointments that was open to him on entering the service of Government in the Department of General Revenue.

That your petitioner ventures to think that his steady perseverance in doing his best for the interests of Government, in the humble position in which he is, will not be overlooked by Your Excellency on this great occasion of the Diamond Jubilee of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen Empress of England and India, and that Your Excellency will be pleased to enquire into the case of your petitioner and, if you find that he is deserving of the favour, that you will be graciously pleased to order his transfer with increased pay and promotion to some other Department of Government, where he may hope by a continuance of good service to meet with greater opportunities of promotion.

And your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.
