PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE
(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture).

Read—the following G.O., No. 442, Revenue, dated 5th June 1897 :—

Read—Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (R.S., L.R. and Agri.), dated 5th April 1897, No. 282 ; dated 8th April 1897, No. 295 ; dated 28th April 1897, No. 323 ; and dated 12th May 1897, Mis. No. 3350.

Order thereon—No. 442, Revenue, dated 5th June 1897.

Government accepts the Board's instructions for the grant of remissions in the districts of Anantapur, Bellary and Ganjám in consideration of the exceptional character of the season with the exception that all waste dry lands should get full remission irrespective of the outturn of the other cultivated lands of their owners; but in doing so considers it necessary to observe that these proposals depart from the Standing Orders in several important particulars as to which orders will be passed when the revised Standing Order submitted with B.P., dated 26th April 1897, No. 313, comes under consideration.

Resolution—dated 16th June 1897, No. 441.

Communicated to the Collectors of Ganjám, Bellary and Anantapur for information and guidance.

2. They will doubtless understand that the direction contained in the G.O. that all waste dry lands should get full remission irrespective of the outturn of the other cultivated lands of their owners, refers only to waste within the limits of tracts for which dry remissions have been sanctioned.
