To the Inspector
Juticornin Circle

Sir,

With reference to your S No 2780 dated 3rd December 1896, on Board's Proceedings No 4670 dated 11th November 1896, requiring me to report whether I still wish that my memorial to Government for arrear of pay from date of dismissal to the date of reinstatement should be submitted to Government I most respectfully ^{beg to} submit that ever since the date of dismissal I have been subjected to immense loss in having been deprived of all my landed properties, and further having become indebted to creditors to a large extent. But for my the unjust order of dismissal in my advanced age

age and after my having put long and meritorious service under Government, I would not have been reduced to such straitened circumstances as I am now in. Under Civil Service Regulations when such an officer dismissed from service is reinstated to the same grade he held at the time of dismissal, he should be paid arrears of pay for the broken period and be recompensed to some extent for the injustice done to him and for the pecuniary loss he is thereby subjected to. I may here mention that when I was in vigorous health I did good service during the famine of 1875, 1876, 1877, as per Bellary District ^{Famine} Administration Reports of that period and also in this Department, so good that it led the Salt Commissioners to mention me in the Administration Reports of 1884-85 as one of the few best officers of the Department. Ever Sincerely

Since I was overtaken by severe illness due to serious fall from horseback on 2 occasions and my Constitution was very much undermined and while in this state of Constitution the unjust order of dismissal overtook me suddenly and ruined me thoroughly. Under these circumstances, I may say, I may not have many more years to live, and may not be able to put in many more years of service and I therefore most humbly and respectfully beg that the Board will be graciously pleased to submit my memorial to Government with this letter and recommend to Government to grant me arrears of pay for such a portion of the broken period as the Board may see fit, for which as in duty bound I shall ever pray to be

Yours most obedient servant

2 In the Civil Service Regulations the Government of India have laid down that when an Officer dismissed from public service is reinstated to the same appointment and to the same pay he held at the time of dismissal, he by reinstatement becomes entitled to the arrears for the period of dismissal. According to these Regulations the memorialist becomes entitled to the arrears of pay from the date of dismissal to the date of restoration.
