Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Land Revenue)

NO.2102 Misc.dated 10th June 1897.

Read the following letter from F.C.Harrison Esq.,-- Offg.Accountant General Madras to the Secretary to the Commission ers of Land Revenue, Madras No.1655 dated 28th May 1897:-

In reply to paragraph 5 of Board's Proceedings No.- 125 dated the 12th of April 1897 I have the honour to state that, in the case of compensation fines, the amounts realized are not cre dited to Government, but are placed in "Deposit accounts" and paid to parties. The Magistrate making payments, has only to see that the item appears in his Registers of ~~the~~ deposit receipts and that - it has not been already paid.

In the case of magisterial fines however, the amount collected are finally credited to Government and any refunds order ed by appellate courts are treated as Government expenditure.

When paying bills for refunds of magisterial fines, the Treasury officer has to verify the details of credit entered - by the Magistrates in the bills and affix his signature in the col provided for the purpose in token of his verification. Vide article 99 of the Civil Account Code.

If the proposal now made by the Board of Revenue is adopted, the verification cannot be done by the Treasury Officer -- before payment.

Further the question of delay in the payment of --- such refunds appears to have been fully considered by the Govern-- ment of India with the result that an order was issued to the ef-- fect that the original courts, should, on receipt of the refund or-- ders from the Appellate Courts, prepare the payment order without delay and deliver it to the party concerned. Vide the Government of India letter to the Madras Government No. 9 Judl./844 dated 18th June 1896 communicated in Government Order No. 1190 Judicial dated 17th July 1896, a copy of which is attached. The High Court has also has issued the necessary instruction to courts on receipt of this order.

For the above reasons the suggestion made by the Collector of Bellary cannot, I think, be adopted.

Resolution.

The Board agrees with the Accountant-General.
