My dear Stokes,

I am forwarding an application for 3 months leave from Mr. Saizenky - Deputy Collector of Sea Customs. I understand that he has been told on several occasions that he must postpone his application for the convenience of his Department. As he is now said to be in need of rest and change I think that the leave should be granted.

As regards arrangements for the discharge of his duty during his absence, I do not know whether I am in order in making suggestions as he is nominally a Deputy Collector, but I think it may be well that I should state my views. I have discussed the question with Mr. Crole and Mr. Atkinson and both think that the best arrangement would be to put Mr. Marshall - Assistant Commissioner on special duty in connection with the preparation of departmental instructions regarding Customs work - or to act for him.

He

put

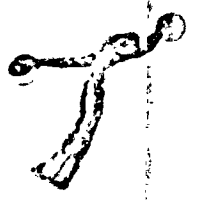

He is, I think, the ablest of the Junior Assistant Commissioners and has now been at work at the Customs House for a month, studying all details of the work there prior to visiting the outports. He appears to have gained a thorough insight into the working of the Madras Customs Department, both indoor and outdoor, and will I have no doubt be a success as Acting Deputy Collector. Messrs. Pitt and Atkinson consider that an officer from the Land Revenue Deputy Collectors list would find his previous experience of but little use at the Customs House.

The only drawback is that this arrangement will delay Mr. Marshall's special duty by a couple of months as he will not be able to make as much progress with it as he otherwise would.

Yours sincerely
W. Marshall

For orders:-

Mr T. A. Paizinsky, Dy Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, has applied for three months privilege leave and the Commissioner of Salt Akkar and Separate Revenue recommends in his D.O. read above that Mr Marshall, as the Commr of Salt, Akkar and Separate Revenue, who is now on special duty in connection with the preparation of a Manual of instructions for the use of the Salt and Akkar officers in Customs matters,
may be appointed to act.

The special tests required for the Dy Collector of Sea Customs Madras are:

- (1) Sea Customs test
- (2) Revenue test, higher grade
- (3) Account test do.
- (4) Criminal judicial test do.

Mr Marshall has passed only the salt and Akkar tests noted on the margin.

When Mr Paizinsky took leave in 1892, Mr Croucher, who was then Manager in the Private Secretary's office was appointed to act though he had not passed the tests.

C 10/6/97

But when Mr Paizensky applied for leave in 1895, the leave was refused on the ground that no suitable substitute could be found and that an officer with technical knowledge was required for the appointment (Please see the Hon: Mr Bliss's remarks in G.O. no. 2929 of 23.7.95 flapped G).

It is therefore a question for consideration whether Mr Marshall should now be appointed to act. The proposal to pay the dy collector, Madras Sea Customs, with Asst Commissioners is lying over pending receipt of the sanction of the Secretary of State to the increased rate of pay of Rs 700 which Mr Paizensky now draws under the sanction of the Govt of India conveyed in para 4 of the letter in G.O. no 459 of 5.8.96. (flapped H).

If His Excellency approves the recommendation of the board a draft minute of appointment will be submitted.
