O.B.

2. The Collector of Bellary suggests that the survey school at Bellary may be opened in August next to enable his Assistant Collector Mr. J. V. S. to join it after appearing for the lower standard examination to be held in Madras in July next. As Mr. A. Y. D. Campbell, Mr. R. V. K. V. S. and Mr. J. V. S. have been ordered to join the survey school at the above station on the 1st proximo, the Board prefers to leave the arrangements already made undisturbed. The survey training of Mr. J. V. S. may be postponed till next year or he may be sent to the school at Madras which opens on the 1st August next.

The Collector of Madras enquires whether Mr. R. V. K. V. S. should be made to undergo the prescribed training in survey. The Collector's query --- will be answered in the affirmative. The Collector states that the Dy. Collector who is in charge of the Sub-Collector's division cannot be deputed for survey training now. The Board sees no objection to his training being postponed till next year. The Collector of North Arcot states that Mr. E. H. Wallace prefers to postpone his survey time to join the school at Bellary. This is approved.

can to the survey school at Bellary as he could not be relieved in the Collector of Madras proposes to send Mr. R. V. K. V. S. to the Superintendent Madras Survey to make the necessary arrangements. The Board sees no objection to this course and accordingly requests the Superintendent for the conduct of the survey schools in the autumn. He may be permitted to be excused by Mr. Wallace when he visits the Godavari proposals in view of the pressure of his family work, that Mr. A. Y. D. Campbell, Mr. R. V. K. V. S. and Mr. J. V. S. are to be deputed for survey training either at Bellary or at Bellary. As regards Mr. A. Y. D. Campbell, the Collector of Bellary suggests that he should be sent to the survey school at Bellary in August next to enable his Assistant Collector Mr. J. V. S. to join it after appearing for the lower standard examination to be held in Madras in July next. As Mr. A. Y. D. Campbell, Mr. R. V. K. V. S. and Mr. J. V.
