From The Lieutenant General Commanding the Forces, Madras.
To The Secretary to the Government of India,

All leases in the Madras Presidency have hitherto been signed by the Quarter-master-General of the Madras Army under a special warrant issued by the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, but there being now ^{no} Quarter-master-General, the question has arisen as to what officer should sign leases and whether it will be necessary to obtain a fresh warrant for the purpose.

3. With regard to land in cantonments in Burma, leases are at present signed by the Military Secretary to the Chief Commis-

in, Bwema, leases
