Boat Rules

Approving the two additional — for the port of Tuticorin, amended as proposed by the Advocate-General, and directing their publication in the Fort St. George and Tinnevely District Gazettes.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Commander H. A. STREET, R.I.M., Presidency Port Officer, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Marine Department, dated 1st June 1897, No. 646/201 G.

I have the honour to submit, for the approval of Government, the accompanying draft notification received from the Board of Revenue relative to two additional Boat rules for the port of Tuticorin.

2. The Collector of Tinnevely points out that rule 1 is desirable for the safety of customs revenue and can be enforced as soon as the Assistant Superintendent of Customs recently sanctioned for the port of Tuticorin is appointed; and that rule 2, though not necessary for customs purposes, will be a useful check against smuggling by passengers and will the better enable the Police and Port authorities to detect cases of passengers taken on board against their will. I concur with this view.

ENCLOSURE.

DRAFT NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 6 of the Indian Ports Act and in continuation of the Boat rules published in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 28th August 1894, Part I, page 996, His Excellency the Governor in Council hereby notifies the following rules for observance in the port of Tuticorin:—

Special rules for observance at the Tuticorin port.

1. Every boat loaded or unloaded, returning from the shipping in the roadstead or harbour of Tuticorin shall touch at the Government jetty for examination by the Sea Customs Department, unless it has been exempted from doing so in writing by the Sea Customs Superintendent.
2. No passenger shall be landed or embarked at any other place than the Government jetty.

From the Government Solicitor, Madras, dated 16th June 1897, No. 342.

ORDER—No. 573, Marine, dated 24th June 1897.

The rules, amended as proposed by the Advocate-General, are approved and will be published in the Fort St. George and Tinnevely District Gazettes.
