what I have got. Merriman gratuitous relief.

Resolution.

In consequence of the withholding of the monsoon, prices in Vizagapatam have risen rapidly, ragi being quoted at only 11 measures a rupee, the highest price ever recorded in the district. This rapid rise necessitates an extension not only of relief works until sufficient employment is provided by the demand for labour for agricultural operations, but also of gratuitous relief, the necessity for which will remain, until the next harvests are reaped, and as long as the present high prices continue. An immediate and copious fall of rain, though vastly improving the prospects of the district, will not remove the necessity for the the administration of gratuitous relief on a large scale, and in order to supervise this work satisfactorily, the collector, at whose disposal the services of Messrs. Irving, Brown, Gillard, Wroughton, and Fleming, of the Salt and Abkari Department, have been already placed for the purpose, urgently requires four additional officers. The Famine Commissioner considers that the appointment of these officers should be sanctioned at once and Government will be addressed accordingly. The Famine Commissioner will do his best to supply the Circle Inspectors asked for by the collector.

2. The following telegram will be despatched to Government:-

Shr

"In addition to four Salt officers already named Vizaga-patam requires urgently four Saluk relief officers to supervise gratuitous relief necessity for which not removed even if monsoon copious."
