READ

The following telegram from the collector of G. Nam dated 7th July 1897.

Reference Board's proceedings 468 twenty eighth June gratuitous relief both Kitchens and grain doles must continue freely for two months. Kitchen relief must expand rather than contract food supply not renewed till middle september prices rising additional circle inspectors required emergently to prevent starvation existing works will be closed as practicable and greater strictness exercised over tasks but some new works necessary in places for

for hitherto available G.O. 473 — cannot be carried out absolutely in this district without disastrous results discretion necessary instead of percentage increase on tasks and minimum wage I suggest proportionate payment on outturn tasks having already been carefully regulate according to workers capacity.

Resolution
