Kurnool, 26th June 1897.

From
The District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Kurnool.

To
The Collector of Kurnool.

Sir,

With reference to your letter, Ref on L N. 2045 of 97 of 23rd June 1897, I have the honour to state that by "intemperance" I meant to imply the craving for drink. Faddy is very largely consumed by the labouring classes in this District, I believe, far more than in other Districts, and even women indulge freely as well as the men. During these these times when food is scarce they may not spend so much on drink as to lead to actual drunkenness. Still a proportion of the wages of many is spent on toddy and as the wages paid are calculated according to the food required to maintain health, it does not leave a margin for luxuries like drinks.

A visit to the toddy shops in Kurnool town on an evening will give one a good idea of the amount of drink consumed and I believe it is the same throughout the district amongst the lower classes.

I have etc.
