MEMORANDUM.

Colacemund
Dated Madras, 14th July 1897.

Note for His Excellency the Governor:-

I beg to request a perusal of an article in the Madras Mail of July 10th headed "The Famine Outlook in Madras" which bears out exactly what I have stated in my note No. 739 D, dated 7th July 1897.

Though I do not as a rule attach much importance to a newspaper article which simply gives the opinion of an irresponsible persons, still as newspaper articles seem to have affected the famine policy of the Government to some extent, I think the article to which I now call attention deserves perusal, as it bears on a subject now under discussion, viz, the relations between the P. W. and the Revenue departments in times of famine.

Secretary to Government.

(1) Seen. This note should be sent to the Board for Comment.

(2) Meanwhile, it should be ascertained whether the order

Order criticized by the C. E. (Chief Engineer) has been issued or not. The C. E. writes in para 4 of his note of the "proposed" order, which raises a doubt as to whether the order has been issued. This doubt must, at once, be set at rest. I must know whether the G.O. has been issued, and if so, on what date.

Copy forwarded to the Revenue Department for the necessary action with reference to para 1 of His Excellency's note, and for supply of the information called for by His Excellency in para 2.
