JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., Nos. 40, 41, Judicial, dated 14th January 1897.

ABSTRACT.—Addressing the Government of India on the subject of the exemption of masonic swords from the operation of the Indian Arms Act.

READ—also the following paper:—

From L. M. THORNTON, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 19th June 1897, No. 1180.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 41, Judicial, dated the 14th January 1897, suggesting the desirability of issuing a notification under section 27 of the Indian Arms Act, 1878, exempting masonic swords from the operation of any prohibition and direction contained in the Act.

2. In reply, I am to say that, after consulting the other maritime Governments, the Governor-General in Council has come to the conclusion that the requirements of the case will be met if the Local Government instructs the Customs authorities that masonic swords when not imported for sale should be admitted without license under the second clause of section 6 of the Arms Act, a license being required when they are intended for sale.

ORDER—No. 949, Judicial, dated 3rd July 1897.

The foregoing letter from the Government of India will be communicated to the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue), with the request that the Customs authorities may be instructed accordingly.
