GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper :—

G.O., Nos. 348, 349, Public, dated 29th March 1897.

ABSTRACT.—Exempting Mr. * * from loss of appointment consequent on his overstay of privilege leave, and addressing the Government of India regarding his loss of allowances.

READ—also the following paper :—

From L. M. THORNTON, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 31st May 1897, No. 946.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 349, Public, dated the 29th March 1897, stating that * * * * Collector of * * * * having overstayed his privilege leave, has rendered himself liable to loss of allowances and of appointment, but has been exempted by the Local Government from loss of appointment under article 262 of the Civil Service Regulations, and recommending that he may also be exempted from the loss of his allowances.

2. In reply, I am to say that article 261 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations clearly lays down the rule on the subject, and that this rule has hitherto been strictly enforced. If an officer chooses to remain absent till the extreme end of public holidays following his privilege leave, he deliberately risks the consequences of unforeseen delay. In the present case the Governor-General in Council thinks that the order passed by the Madras Government is a sufficient indulgence to * * * *, and accordingly regrets that he is unable to accept the recommendation made by the Government of Madras for exempting him from loss of allowances.

ORDER—No. 832, Public, dated 30th June 1897.

* * * * *

2. The letter from the Government of India will be communicated to all gazetted officers for information.
