My dear Sir

I am glad to inform you that the Koyas now appear to be ready to give in quietly as they now see any threat of the military was no idle one for the company from Vizianagaram arrived this morning Besides with the assistance of me Chandiah the police captured a headman named Karna Bonda Yesterday who had said he would see us far enough before he came in and from whom we expect some serious resistance as he

The Government of the has captured two so far of the concerned things in a soon the down in their instigations having taken flight and abandoned them they are more or less like the perverts & shepherd. However a good deal of this is of course surmise and it will not be easy to get reliable information against men like Chandiah, Dhedda, Kishnappa who are verily the kings of the Koyas though not Koyas but their landlords I will write and let you know how things progress in a day or two or a week fairly-thing new turn up. Pussat started at one o'clock on a surprise expedition and has not yet turned up so that I do not know if he has been successful.
