Order—No. 661, Revenue, dated 23rd November 1896.

Separate Revenue No. 106.

With reference to the Board's remarks in paragraph 2 of its Proceedings read above, it is observed that if the course therein suggested be adopted the stamps will be exhibited in no register at all during the interval between the date of their being taken out of the double-lock stock for the purpose of sealing and the date of completion of sealing and despatch to taluks. The Government considers this to be objectionable and accordingly approves of the suggestion of the Superintendent of Stamps referred to in the same paragraph.

2. The rule in paragraph 9 of Standing Order No. 42 will, as requested by the Board of Revenue in paragraph 3 of its Proceedings, be relaxed in the case of copy stamp papers.
