READ... The following letter from the collector of Ganjani dated 5th July 1897 Re No. $\frac{140}{57}$ 997.

I have the honor to state that on 28th May last about 200 houses were destroyed by fire at Sowpet of which 4 belong to weavers who were on relief. Among other things that were destroyed by fire, a portion of the twist advanced to the weavers in question was burnt, but the greater portion of twist and cloths were saved.
A statement showing the quantity and value of twist destroyed is enclosed for the Board's information.
The Deputy Sahildar of Sowpet who was present on the occasion reports that that he was satisfied that the twist in question was actually destroyed by fire and recommends the remission of its value viz Rs 3-10-6.

I therefore request the Board's order to write off the amount from the account.

Resolution
Sanctioned.
