Note for the Head Clerk

I beg to bring the following facts to your notice and request that necessary action may be taken at an early date:-

During the previous years, it was usual to bring to Colby two typists, whose whole time was occupied in typing alone. But this year the two typists that were brought here, have in addition to the typing of Govt & the notes of the drafts officers, to ~~also~~ attend to other duties also, one of them being the Circulation clerk & the other the short-handwriter. The pressure of work in the current ~~ac-~~tion, chiefly due to the additional work thrown on the establishment in consequence of famine, is so great that the two typists cannot cope with the work, although they work in the office from 11 am. to 7 pm. and later. yesterday one of them left the office at 10.30⁺ in the night & the other at 8.30. Further, as both the typists are busy from morning till evening, I experience great difficulty in finding a clerk to compare with the G.O. Co. placed here. I have several times brought to your notice the difficulties I experience in getting through the work.

Under the above circumstances I request you will kindly recommend to the Undersecy. & the Secy. the necessity of securing the services of an additional clerk to assist the Current branch. If it is decided not to bring a clerk from the Madras office, I request that a local man may be engaged, on a salary of Rs 15 or 20.

Submitted for favourable consideration. As all famine the G.O. whether Miscellaneous yes along with me or Pen are typed here there is sufficient work for an addl. typist.

I support the above proposal. this will give a little relief to my clerk who has now to type many notes.

16/7/97
16.7.97

There is only one clerk solely attached to the Famine Assistant. No temporary clerical establishment has yet been entertained on account of famine. The clerk who now works under the Famine Assistant belongs to the Permanent establishment.

Sir,

I thank you for the kind offer. My circumstances at present do not permit my accepting this temporary post at city, and I therefore beg to decline the offer.

Note for V. Rajabadaudali

Are you willing to go to duty at your own expense and take up a temporary appointment on Rs 30, in the event of its being offered to you. It will last for six months certainly.

26th 9/17

Respected Sir,

I beg to submit that I am at present an acting clerk in the office of the Asst. Comm.
General and Inspector of Local Fund accounts on Rs 25/-.
I am quite willing, however, to take up the appointment in duty, now offered with the view that my claims may be favorably considered when any future vacancies occur, in preference to others that may come after me.

Yours faithfully,
Rajabadaudali

Note for the Head Clerk

Ragabadar mudali is now holding some temporary appointment ^{on Rs 25 per mensem} in the Accountant General's office to last for three months. In consideration of this & of the fact that he would have to incur some expenditure on account of wear on clothing & Railway fare &c. he was first unwilling to take up the temporary appointment in our office; but I told him that if he should take up the apptt & do his work satisfactorily he would have better chances of being taken into the permanent establishment on vacancies occurring than any outsider. In this hope he has accepted the appointment at some sacrifice and ~~has~~ have

I believe he ~~has~~ ~~written~~^{note} to this effect in his reply to my note of the 26th inst.

As it is desirable that the point should not be lost sight of, let this slip be filed with the papers relating to his appointment.

He will leave this place on Saturday evening & join the office on Monday.
