GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From W. S. MEYER, Esq., Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Marine Department, dated Simla, the 30th June 1897, No. 2883 Ex.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 384 (Marine), dated 28th April 1897, I am directed to say that, in the circumstances explained, the Government of India will not object to the proposed grant to Mr. Carlyon of a deputation allowance of Rs. 60 per mensem for the period, 27th November 1891 to 1st February 1892, during which he was in charge of the dredger "Wenlock," in addition to a shore allowance of Rs. 4 per diem for the time spent ashore in Bombay, and table money at Rs. 3 per diem for the number of days that he took his meals on board.

2. With reference to paragraph 1 (c) of Revenue Department Proceedings, Mis. No. 5056, dated 10th December 1896, a copy of which accompanied your letter quoted above, I am to point out that, as Mr. Swann had apparently not taken charge of the post of Agent for Government Consignments and Personal Assistant to the Presidency Port Officer (on Rs. 300 per mensem) at the time of his deputation to the Laccadives, he was not entitled, under article 98, Civil Service Regulations, to a salary of Rs. 300 per mensem, with deputation allowance calculated thereon for the period of his deputation. Article 98, Civil Service Regulations, covers the pay or salary which an officer would have continued to draw but for his deputation; but not the grant of extra pay (otherwise than by deputation allowance as therein provided) on the ground that he would have acted in a higher appointment had he not been placed on special duty. I am, however, to add that the Government of India do not desire to raise any objection to the effect of the order in question.

Copy forwarded to the Accountant-General, Madras, for information, in continuation of endorsement No. 5242 Ex., dated 5th August 1892.

ORDER—No. 613, Marine, dated 10th July 1897.

Communicated to the officers concerned and the Revenue Department.

Note—Please see note under G. 6.

50.56 mis dated 10th December 1896.

Mr. Swann who was at the time

ag. Port Officer, Tuticorin, on Rs 300 per mensem, was deputed to the Laccadives in charge of the S.S.

Margarita. The period of deputation lasted from December 95 to February

96. When the question of the allowances due to Mr. Swann for the ^{above} period of deputation arose, the Government

sanctioned the payment of salary

at the rate of Rs 300 per mensem.

This order was based upon information received from the Marine Dept of Govt which was to the effect that Mr. Swann would have continued to draw salary at the rate of Rs 300 per mensem till February 96 as ag. agent,

Govt Consignments. It was therefore thought that art 98(a) of the Civil Service Regulations would apply to the case in question.

2 In para 2 of the letter contained in the Current, the Government of India points out that article 98(a) C.S.R. does not apply to Mr Sinam's case, as that officer had not at the time of his deputation taken charge of the post of agent, Govt Consignments. But it may be noted that subsequently on a representation made by the Accountant General, Mr Sinam was gazetted as ag. agent for Govt Consignments (please see G.O. 1288 mis dated 8 March 97) and was granted the allowances admissible under the circumstances. Of this however, the Govt of India was ~~was~~ unaware while passing the remarks and it seems unnecessary now to draw its attention to G.O. 1288 mis d 8.3.97, especially as no objection is taken to the grant of the allowances. It is therefore submitted that the Current may be recorded with reference to G.O. 1288 mis d 8.3.97 and a copy communicated to the Marine Dept and the Accountant General.
