The Board of Rev:

the manuals which it has already ^{published} or may hereafter be published embodying the rules and orders promulgated under legislative enactments the Stamp Manual to which errata slips have been issued only once or twice after its issue in 1889 is ~~likely to~~ requires have since been cancelled or modified and a large number of new additions made to them the Manual therefore is now almost useless for purposes of reference ^{and the B.S.O. is now consulted in its place} ~~purposes~~. The other manuals already published are the Income Tax Manual and the Excise Manual. The second edition of the former was out only a few days ago. The manuals relating to Forests and Salt are still under preparation (in papers flagged A & B)

2 The following reply Office note is also submitted for approval N^o 43 of 28th May 1897.
