ACCOUNTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE 14 DEC 96 MADRAS

Dated 11th December 1896.

No. 6437 Miscellaneous.

READ the following letter from the Ag Collector of Anantapur, dated 3rd December 1896 R. C. No. 3609:—

I have the honor to state that before the recent fall of rain, the Divisional Officers and Tahsildars had under my instructions been inviting applications for loans under the Land Improvement and Agriculturists Loans Act especially to improve and increase the facilities for irrigation, and as the result of their exertions, applications were received in large numbers in Gooty, Anantapur and Kalyandrug Taluks as noted in the margin. Even the recent fall in the latter end of November was not of a tank filling nature and several tanks in consequence are dry and there have been no improvement in prospects, So far as cultivations under tanks is concerned. As there is probably no prospect of future rains till the next may or june, the Sinking and repairs of wells and other Agricultural improvements will go a long way to meet the requirements of the ryot populations and the works thus started will serve to provide labour to the Agricultural labourers in the vicinity of their homes. I have consequently directed the Divisional Officers and Tahsildars not to relax endeavours in encouraging State loans and to strive their best to prevail upon the ryots to fully avail themselves of the advantages offered by the Government.

2. Unless steps are taken for the prompt disposal of applications already received and others which are sure to be received soon the efforts of the Local officers will be of little use. The existing Staff of Revenue Inspectors is busily engaged in collecting and verifying Statistics regarding possible remissions, And they cannot afford to devote adequate and timely attention for the disposal of loan applications. I would therefore Strongly recommend that Sanction be accorded for the entertainment of an additional Revenue Inspector on Rs 40 with a peon on Rs 6 in each of the Taluks of Anantapur and Kalyandrug, one having already been applied for in this office Ref on C.No. 2838 dated 19th November 1896 for the Gooty Taluk.
