JUNE.

The qualifications required in officers selected for Famine Duty indicated, and the Superintendent, Madras Survey, requested to submit through the Famine Commissioner revised lists of officers that can be spared and are recommended for such duty.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—letter from the Superintendent, Madras Survey, No. 60-G., dated 19th May 1897, submitting lists of Gazetted Officers, upper subordinates and surveyors of the Madras Survey Department, from whom selection might be made for employment on famine duty.

Order—(PERS) No. 428, DATED 3RD JUNE 1897.

The Government did not call for a list of officers employed in the Survey Department, but of only such of them as the Superintendent could from personal knowledge or otherwise recommend as suitable for the supervision of relief works or for the posts of Taluk Relief Officers, Circle Inspectors, &c. The supervision of relief works requires some technical knowledge in the laying out and measuring of works, while the persons recommended for the posts of Taluk Relief Officers and of Circle Inspectors should possess great activity and endurance; a Taluk Relief Officer should also possess considerable tact and powers of control as he will have to exercise authority over all the officers, Revenue and Public Works, employed on famine relief in the division to which he is posted.

2. The Superintendent will be good enough to prepare revised lists and submit them to Government through the Famine Commissioner as directed in G. O. No. 410, dated 31st May 1897. The lists may be prepared on the assumption that fieldwork will be stopped as in 1876-78.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter of the Military Commissioner for Madras, No. 1107/S dated 21st May 1927:

I have the honour to state for the information of Govt. with reference to para. 123, Famine Code, that I found when inspecting Famine works on my late tour that, in the absence of hospital no provision exists whereby a person physically fit for work may be temporarily compulsorily stopped from earning his living in the interests of his fellow workers without suffering from loss of pay, which, of course, in a period of famine would imply subjection to starvation. A very common affection amongst famine workers, if the matter does not receive prompt attention by requiring segregation, is the prevalence of conjunctivitis. The persons suffering from this disease may be physically fit to work notwithstanding the great discomfort if not pain caused by the condition, and may insist upon the right to earn a living. Again, in the case of measles and small-pox, the preliminary symptoms may be so masked as to require a few hours before a definite opinion is given. During this period, the suspect should be kept away from the works. The difficulty may also arise at times of injuries to eyes or limbs caused on the works when a short rest would put matters right; advanced pregnancy affords also a case where it would be desirable to cause a cessation of work in the interests of the person concerned. I have known women toil till actually delivered on the works.

Under the above circumstances, there seems to me room for a provision that a medical officer in charge of a work might direct on medical grounds either in the interests of the patient himself or of those associated with him that for a definite period ^{the} labour shall be given on the works. This might be arranged by the medical officer giving a certificate extending to no longer a period than five days without further observation stating the disability. Persons suffering from disabilities should be required to assemble for examination at a special spot sufficiently removed from the famine relief work marked by a Hospital flag on the day of the expiry of their leave certificates, or if the medical officer so desires should attend then daily. The names of persons should be entered on their respective ~~and~~ roll. Wages be accorded so long as they obey the medical directions:-

The certificate might be given in the form in the charge of the Famine

No. 4327

orks do hereby certify that Relief worker.....of s suffering from.....(or) is suspected by me to be suffering rom.....I consider that ^{the} wage should be allowed him (her) without labour for a period of (not exceeding five) days.

Order thereon, No. 423 dated 2nd June 1907.

The suggestion of the Sanitary Commissioner is approved. In the absence of a medical officer the certificate may be issued by the officer in charge of the work.

The Marine Commissioner will be requested to issue instructions accordingly.
