Copy of Office Note from the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, No.3376, dated 3rd August 1897:--

In reply to endorsement No.1520, dated 20th July 1897, on letter of the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits the manuscript G.O. was received on the 18th and proof was sent out on the 25th. The 23rd was Sunday and Monday 24th was the Queen's Birthday when the press was closed. The G.O. was marked "Very Emergent". It is usual for the Secretariat clerks to write "V.E." or "E" on each of the proofs of an emergent paper to prevent an oversight by the press; but in this case the clerks in the Secretariat did not repeat the "V.E." on the proofs and, with the pressure of famine papers, the urgency of this paper was lost sight of. The difficulties that the Superintendent has at times experienced in the striking off of copies since 23rd April last caused by the stoppage of overtime allowances are not fully realized by Government and at times, delays were unavoidable. In this case the delays were in the correction of the first proof and in striking off of the copies, and the Superintendent regrets that the urgency of the paper was lost sight of in the correction stages.

OFFICE NOTE No. 1711

Dated 14th August 1897.

From

THE CHIEF SECRETARY,

To

THE SECRETARY, REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

With reference to Revenue Department office note No. 58, dated 14th July 1897, the undersigned has the honour to enclose a copy of the explanation submitted by the Superintendent of the Government Press. It is a fact that the working of the Press has been very much hindered and disorganized by the abolition of overtime allowances but these having been recently sanctioned by the Government of India it is hoped that in future there will be no delay in getting out emergent papers.
