SUBJECT.

Acknowledging receipt of letter regarding the probable expenditure on famine relief in the Madras Presidency from 1st April to 30th Septr 1897 and awaiting the received estimate promised in the same

Dept 25/8/97

Note. The Famine Commr has sent in a estimate of 77.7 lakhs & in a further communication says that in view of recent orders the estimate is capable of considerable reductions. The papers are being separately circulated a paper that has been received to day for counter-initials from the F.D shows that the booked expenditure in april to june was 26.02 and that in july 21.45 lakhs. that in august must, if any thing, be more than the latter figure, so that the expenditure in april to august must be more than 70 lakhs: and then we have september and part of october. Thus it is almost certain that the expenditure in 1897-8 will considerably exceed the Famine Comm'n's estimate of 77.7 lakhs.

RS
