SUBJECT.

Praying for the Confirmation of an allowance enjoyed by their brother marked I of M.P. & Co.

From the old papers but it appears that the grant was made for a charitable purpose but that the grantee devoted it to the upkeep of a dargah built over the tombs of some sacred men. The grant was in dispute in 1846 & the Collector recommended its continuance to one Lady Ameen Shah. The Govt (Vide E. & C. P. 110 H) recognizes that the grant was originally charitable & hereditary & therefore with presumption even it was the religious use it was put to for the last 50 years. ^{The Govt} therefore recommended to the Govt of India the continuance of the grant to Lady Ameen Shah (who was the widow and who had been keeping up the dargah till the dispute arose). The Govt of India first enquired whether C. Amin Shah would not keep up the dargah without the grant and on being informed that he would not.

It appears therefore that the continuance of his grant to Lady Ameen Shah was only an act of grace & that ^{there is} no reason to continue the grant any longer.
