Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture),

Dated 20th August 1897.

No. 6701 Miscellaneous.

READ Endorsement from the Collector of Bellary No. 4572, dated 25th July 1897, submitting to the Board of Revenue, Revenue Settlement with reference to para 10 of Board's Proceedings No. 435 dated 14th June 1897, letter from the Head Quarter Deputy Collector Bellary No. 2318 dated 21st July 1897, reporting about the position in life and the work done by the Komati Lady Paramma of Bellary in connection with the relief of the poor.

Resolution.

With reference to para 10 of Board's Proceedings No. 435 dated 14th June 1897, the Famine Commissioner begs to lay before Government the results of the Enquiries made about the Komati Lady Paramma. Her grand father Rottakal Virupakshappa was a wealthy Sowcar, well known for his charitable works. On the death of her father in 1876, Paramma, who was then about about 2 years old, succeeded to a very considerable property. In November 1896 she commenced to feed the poor in Bellary, and continued doing so, up to May 4th, when gratuitous relief ^{by} Government was fully established. The number attending her kitchen at one time rose to 450, and was generally between 200 and 300. Her charitable action is deserving of the most favourable notice.

2. Paramma is not the only lady or private person who has unsolicited, been forward in charitable deeds. The Rani of Madwar is another. Perhaps Government would prefer that all concerned should be mentioned in the General report on the Famine. A note of the matter will be made in the office.
