Permanent Advance.

Sanctioning a — of Rs. 20 in the case of all medical subordinates deputed for special duty in connection with epidemics and famine.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

From F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 15th July 1897, No. 2168.

In forwarding herewith the enclosed letter, No. 3337, dated the 10th July 1897, from the Government Agent, Gódávari, in which that officer applies for a permanent advance of Rs. 20 to the hospital assistant, Bhadráchalam, deputed on cholera duty, I have the honour to state that I have no objection to the advance being sanctioned. With regard to the Agent's suggestion that such advance might be sanctioned generally for medical subordinates deputed for special duty in connection with epidemics, if Government approve of the proposal, I will, in terms of the Government's general sanction, instruct payment in each case on the Collector's or other responsible officer's application as occasion arises.

Enclosure.

From V. A. BRODIE, Esq., Government Agent, Gódávari, to the Chief Secretary to Government (through the Accountant-General), dated Cocanada, 10th July 1897, Ref. on C. No. 333-Agy.

The hospital assistant at Bhadráchalam has been deputed on cholera duty by the District Medical and Sanitary Officer since 5th May last and incurs petty expenses which require to be paid at once before money can be obtained on a contingent bill. He has accordingly applied for a permanent advance of Rs. 20, and the District Medical and Sanitary Officer recommends the grant of the advance. I have therefore the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the advance in question, which might, I think, be sanctioned generally for medical subordinates deputed for cholera or other special duty in connection with epidemics whilst on such special duty.

From Surgeon-Major-General C. SIBTHORPE, C.B., F.R.C.P.I., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 11th August 1897, No. 286.

With reference to endorsement, No. 1606, dated 29th July 1897, on Current No. 2197, Financial, herewith returned as requested, I have the honour to state that a permanent advance of Rs. 20 is very necessary for medical subordinates deputed for special duties, such as famine, cholera, &c. While writing this letter, I have received a communication from the District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Anantapur, applying for a permanent advance of Rs. 10 to each of the hospital assistants employed on famine duty for contingent expenses.

2. As similar applications may be expected from other famine and cholera stricken districts, I request that the Accountant-General may generally be authorized to make the necessary advances as occasion arises.

Order—No. 645, Financial, dated 17th August 1897.

A permanent advance of Rs. 20 is sanctioned in the case of all medical subordinates deputed for special duty in connection with epidemics and famine.
