Fort St. George,
Assistant General's Office,
8th January 1897.

Forwarded with the remark that Government can under Article 95 of the Civil Service Regulations declare that the individuals in question should be regarded as belonging to a temporary establishment during the period they were employed as extra potdars, to enable them to count the detached service for pension under Article 410 of the Regulations.

2. The emoluments of the potdars should be charged to "Temporary Establishments" and not to Contingencies and the Collector of Ganjam will be informed accordingly.

3. The delay in submitting the report is due to a reference having been made to the Collector of Ganjam.
