REVENUE DEPT

To

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR
IN COUNCIL.
FORT ST. GEORGE

MADRAS.

The humble petition of K Venkataramayya,
late fifth Vernacular Accountant, Kistna Collectorate, Masulipatam.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

1. That your Excellency's humble Petitioner, was obliged to forfeit his appointment on 26th July 1895 under the orders of the Collector Kistna who refused him extension of leave applied for by him (Petitioner) under unavoidable circumstances.

2. That Petitioner on 16th October 1895 presented an appeal (a copy of which is herewith submitted) to your Excellency stating in detail the circumstances which necessitated his application for an extension.

3. That your Excellency in Council referred the appeal to the Board of Revenue and the Board in its Proceedings No 5432 dated 7th December 1896, ordered petitioner's restoration to office formally and directed that he be allowed to retire on pension forthwith treating the period of his absence from duty before restoration, as leave without allowances.

4. That Petitioner respectfully begs to appeal against this decision of the Board which has unjustly deprived him of his pay and service from 1st June 1895 to 11th November 1896. That the Board having seen the injustice of the Collector's Order and the propriety of reinstating petitioner, it is but just and reasonable that he should be allowed pay and service for the period he was obliged to be absent from duty owing to the unjust action of the Kistna Collector.

5. That Petitioner accordingly prays that your gracious Excellency will be pleased to sanction for him arrears of pay from 1st June 1895 to 11th November 1896 and if so far to allow him the benefit of counting service during the period.

That for the above acts of Justice and Generosity Petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray for your Excellency's Long life and prosperity.

Read letter from J.K. Batten Esq., Collector of Kistna to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, NO. — 2796-Ver. dated 23rd July 1897.

Resolution.

Submitted to Government.

2. The petitioner was very leniently treated by the Board in being permitted to retire and his prayer that he should be allowed pay for the period which was ordered to be treated as having been spent on leave without allowances does not, in the Board's opinion, deserve any consideration.

3. The Collector should have explained why the present petition was detained in his office from April 28th to July 29th, 1897, a period of over 3 months. Rule XI of the Government petition rules requires that petitions addressed to Government should be forwarded at once, and the period of detention for the collection of the necessary records should rarely exceed one month.

there applied by telegram on the 24th June 1895, for three months leave on loss of pay under Art. 372 of the C. S. R. in continuation of the leave on medical certificate already granted to him. The Collector of Kistna refused to grant the leave applied for and communicated the order of refusal to the memorialist by telegram on 26th June 1895. The memorialist on receipt of this telegram wired to the Collector on the 27th to say that he was starting and would join on Monday 30th June. But on the very next day he sent a telegram to the Collector as follows: - "While starting brother dangerously ill, grant one month's leave without pay. The Collector refused to grant this leave and the memorialist presented himself for duty on the 8th July 1895, thus absenting himself without leave from 25th June 1895 to 8th July 1895. The Collector thereupon declared in his proceedings dated 21st ^{July} August 1895 at the memorialist had vacated his appointment and ordered the Deputy Collector to submit proposals for filling it up. The post post was permanently filled up by the appointment of one Krishnamurti, a clerk in the Registration Department, whose tenure of office in a foreign service arrangement as Special Band 3rd class to an end about the time. The Collector had a good opinion of this man and was thus able to detain him from returning to his permanent appointment in the Registration Department in order that he may not lose his past services. This order of appointment was on 6th August 1895. Meanwhile, the memorialist had, in 30th July 1895, submitted a petition to the Collector stating as follows: - (1) that, though leave on medical certificate cannot be granted for more than two years under Art. 369 of the C. S. R., but extraordinary leave without allowance may, in case of necessity, be granted for such time as may be necessary under Art. 264 and 272 of the C. S. R. and (2) that the leave asked for by him was out of real necessity, as he was importuned by his aged father, a retired District Munsiff, to remain at home to attend on his only other son
