To Orders.

In C. Orn. 626/26.7.97, three T.R.Os were sanctioned for Kurnool and in C. Orn. 4116/7.8.97, the D.A.G. was requested to arrange for sending three Military Officers for the purpose. One officer Capt. Shaw, 15th M.I., has already been sent. (T.O. 4422/23.8.97). Referring to a telephone stating that T.R.Os are not at present required for Bellary and that the request for the supply of Military officers for the purpose may be held in abeyance, the D.A.G. enquires whether European officers besides Capt. Shaw already deputed are still needed for famine duty in Kurnool. There have been some good rain lately in all the worst parts of Nellore and Guntur districts and registered 6/9/97. Telegram

SUBJECT.

Enquiring whether any more European officers are required for famine duty in Kurnool at the ~~date~~ different stations since the date of the last season report (21st Aug) ~~aggregate 220 workers~~ and it is not likely that more officers will be needed at present. The Fam. Comm's application in the first instance was for one T.R.O for Ramallakota and it was the Govt that sanctioned of its own motion three T.R.Os for the district.

There were 45,753 famine protection relief workers in Kurnool in the week ending 21.8.97 RS 31-8-97

40,027 of whom were relief in kitchens & villages. The numbers were increasing. I submit ~~Yours 31st~~ decreasing. I do not think more R.O's are wanted at present.
