The Collr decides that the Dt Judge's view of the law is correct & directs the Revenue Board to communicate with the Collrs accordingly. The G.O. 353 11-4-92

It is a familiar habit to obviate that Mr Mackenzie's judgment does not conflict with the High Court's Ruling quoted. The interesting question is whether any new distribution affects existing arrangements to the prejudice of the 25th Nerungy Cooli cannot be cut off from one Kot & given to another so as to cause the former injury. Whether the diminution of his water supply by one 25th cooli causes him injury is an almost proportional matter. His hard case what-useful purpose Mr Higgins brought out & served by his reference
