G.O. Mis No. 484 of 26th January 1897

21/12/96

Read the observations below. The order must be modified with reference to them

The return submitted with the B.P. read above shows that all the relief workers were placed in class C and that in several cases minimum wages were paid. The first point has been noticed by the Board, but not the second. The attention of all officers should be called to the provisions of the Famine Code on the subject. The work actually turned out by relief workers falls short of the allotted task either to owing to their weakness or to neglect on their part. In the former case only the task should be reduced so as to give the weakly relief worker a reasonable amount of healthy employment (S.100). In the latter case, deduction from pay should be made in accordance with the provisions of S.166. Famine Code as explained in G.O. 1 Mis. No. 43 dt. 26-1-97
