Please see the notes stitched with G.O. No. 2834 dy 17th May 1897

The Chairman of the Alamuru Association has apparently got information somehow or other of the despatch to Govt of Bl. No 1688 dy 8th July 1897 and has again come up for a copy of the remarks of the Dy Comm. and the Board on the District Assocn. Memorials. The copy is evidently wanted for making further representations. It is submitted that the opportunities already afforded to the Godavari people to make representations must be considered to be sufficient and

and that the applicant may be privately be told that E.O. since no 4853 d/15 sept 97 has since received the reports in question and The Govt does not ~~see~~ consider that any useful purpose would be served by ~~sufficient reasons for~~ complying with the applicant's request.

If the association be permitted to send in a reply to the Bd's remarks (and it is submitted, a copy of the remarks should be sent to them for no other reason) this reply will probably again have to go to the Bd. And there will be no end of the matter. Even in criminal trials the prosecutor has the last word.

Submitted further that the B.P. in question contains new matter upon which the Association could give Govt any useful information.

I submit that discussion must come to an end sometime and on the memorials as a mass of misstatements. It is simply unprofitable to go on examining & refuting them.

Quite so. We have ample information before us on which to base a decision, & the Association's memorials prove that we could not get anything of value from it.
