Copy of letter from the Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, No.B/A.1209, dated 21st January 1897:-

Adverting to O.G.(Judicial Department) No.1672, dated 1st October last, I am desired to inform you that on the 21st idem, His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India addressed the Government of India in view to instructions being issued to the Government of Madras to take the necessary steps for the sale of the Military lands and buildings at Royapuram from which Native troops have been withdrawn, and to suggest that the application from the Commissioner of Police, Madras, for a site for a Police Station near those lines, be disposed of under such arrangements as the Government of Madras may consider it necessary to order.

2. This matter was deferred as it was thought that it might be disposed of in connection with the general question above referred to, but it is now understood that no communication from the Government of India has as yet reached the Madras Government on the subject.

3. The plan and letter No.36, dated 13th September last,

(in original) from the Commissioner of Police are herewith returned.

Read again G.O. No 538 Judicial of 13 April 1877 informing the Commissioner of Police that his request to have a plot of land near the Rappahannock line and belonging to the Military department transferred to him for a new police station cannot be considered now as the same has been temporarily made over to the municipality for use as a plague hospital.

Read also the following:-

From the Commissioner of Police, Madras, 15th May 1877:

With reference to G.O. No 538, Judicial of 13 April 1877 I have the honour to inform you that I communicated with the President, Municipal Commission, Madras, the new scheme now that the proposed site of the Police station is at a considerable distance from the Rappahannock line and segregation should not hinder it.
Henceforth will not in any way interfere with the plague arrangements of the Municipal Commissioners.

I therefore reiterate my application for the grant and you will be so good as to accord your sanction for the construction of a new station house and issue the necessary orders in the Public Works Department for the work being done at an early date.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, Madras, 15th 28th April, 28th July 1877, submitting letter from the Collector of Madras in relation to the transfer of a portion of survey No 30 of land to the Police Department for the construction of a new station with the remark that the Board is in favour of the proposed transfer.

Enforcement of the Revenue Code,
No 255 of 1877, in the district.

Order of 28th September 1877.

The Commissioner of Police, Madras, is now proceeding to construct a new police station on the site of the old one which is situated on the Rappahannock line for the prosecution of the plague arrangements and is in the Public Works Department.

2. The Revenue Department will now be required to issue the necessary orders for the formal grant to the Police Department of the plot of land near the Rappahannock line, etc. for the Commissioner of Police.

3. The existing station house at Rappahannock should be in the proposed by Mr. Rappahannock in his letter, 15th 28th.
