No. 7671 Mis.

READ.....the following letter from the Collector of Anantapur Ref on C No. 5652/8-9-97, dated 8th September 1897:-

The period sanctioned in Government order No. 1873 Miscellaneous, dated 7-4-97, embodied in Board's Proceedings No. 2801 Miscellaneous dated 14-4-97, Revenue Settlement expired in the case of one of the Special Revenue Inspectors of Kalyandurg on 15-7-97. The other Special Revenue Inspector of this taluk did not work for the whole period for which his entertainment was sanctioned. Two months before the expiry of the time, this Revenue Inspector was ordered to revert to his permanent appointment and the post was vacant. The former Revenue Inspector was therefore ordered to work for two months more, i.e., during the unexpired portion of the other Revenue Inspector. This period also expires on 15-9-97 and the Tahsildar applies for the Revenue Inspector's retention for 3 months more considering the fact that there are still 300 applications pending, the major portion of which relate to the Cusba firka. As all the ^{ordinary} Revenue Inspectors will have sufficient Jamabandi work to do, I consider that the Special

Revenue Inspector may be allowed to work in the Cusba firka for 2 months more and have therefore the honor to recommend his retention for the same period. Though on account of the recent rains, the 200 applications for fodder and 40 for wells are likely to be withdrawn, the remaining applications are for cattle and require immediate attention.

Resolution.

In the circumstances reported by the Collector in his letter read above, the Board sanctions, subject to confirmation by Government, the retention for a further period of three months of one of the two Special Revenue Inspectors sanctioned for the Kalyanadrag taluk in G.O. No. 748 dated 9th February 1897.
