Endorsement of the Revenue Department, No:1459, R, dated 2nd August 1897, on Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, Land Revenue, No:2635, d/18th July 1897, submitting letter from the Collector of Salem, No:3395, d/30th June 1897.

O R D E R :- No:1206, dated the 15th September 1897.

The Collector of Salem will inform the Commandant, Madras Railway Volunteers, that he should address the Staff Officer of his district on the whole subject.

2. The Collector's proposal to pay the rent of the present rifle range from Land Revenue contingencies is inadmissible, the charge being a military and not a civil one. The Commandant should be requested, pending the receipt of orders from the Military authorities on the question to continue the payment of rent, and it should be clearly explained to him that, if the payments be not continued, the owners of the land may cause considerable inconvenience by claiming their property.
