The Chief Secretariat to Government
Revenue Dept. Fort St. George

Sir,

In ours of 26th November last we quoted Rs 6/8 for repairing the Raleigh bicycle,
but on taking ~~out~~ the machine to pieces & proceeding with the repairs after receipt of your sanction on 14th December 96 we found that a new spindle was wanted for the back wheel as also a cone, 2 nuts & 5 bearing balls. As the repairs were already long delayed in waiting for sanction for Rs 6/8 & the machine was wanted urgently by your office, we supplied all the above requisites in anticipation of your approval, at less than cost prices. This explains the Rs 3/8 charges in excess.

We have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
Addison & Co.

Are there no detailed bill? Speak to me about this. L.D.

Explained in person. Said that item was explained & admitted.

No.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

With reference to their Bill for Rs 42 of 20-2-97, Messrs. Addison & Co are informed that items 2 to 4 have ^{always} been paid. They are requested to state how item 1 (Rs 8) came to be inserted in the Bill while a separate Bill for Rs 2 was tendered by them as repairing charges & paid by this office on the 20th Jan^y 1897.

Surely this is the other bicycle 'Raleigh' 'Quinton' & the Raleigh are described as they had? This is for an extra Rs 2 sent for repairs.

The 'Quinton' & the 'Raleigh' are distinct. The former is the same as No 18306/0 & was sent for repairs in November last. Soon after this was returned a bill for Rs 2 was received & paid on the 20th Jan^y 97.

C.D. 2/3/97. (A. 2 main)

There is no thing to show (1) that the payment of Rs 21. relates to the 'Quinton' Bicycle, or the nature of the repairs done but are there no detailed bills? Speak here about this.

Explained in person. Detailed bill item 1 should be admitted. 10/8/97
