The point of the Hon. Member's remarks seems to be that he wants Mr Garstin's order cancelled. If this be his meaning

I would request that the paper may be sent on to the Hon. Member now in charge of the Dept. as till he has assented it is obviously necessary that the rule laid down by a former Member be followed.

note that that the latter order is now cancelled and that such applications should be treated as urgent.

The Hon. Sir Henry Bliss K.C.J.E.

With reference to the Hon. Sir Henry Bliss's remark pointing out that Mr. Russell's privilege leave application should have been treated as urgent attention is respectfully solicited to the following note recorded by Mr. Garstin (member of Council) under G.O. No 1420 D 2.3.91.

"It is quite unnecessary to send round applications for privilege leave in urgent covers unless the point of the should be shown & papers be treated according to the rules. It is futile to attempt to lay down rules. The note privilege leave applications require common sense is wanted. At present, we don't get it as given we might, hoping you being marked urgent unless the officer applying for leave was ill. Now here is a good sample of the how papers are not marked "urgent" they should be - Mr. Russell wanted his leave from the 23rd, the very day the paper was circulated.

It was not marked "urgent" I have therefore only taken it in turn today - On the other hand, papers which might easily wait for weeks are often marked "urgent."

Under an order issued by the Hon. Mr. Garstin, when Minister of Council, no leave application is to be treated as urgent unless the officer applying for leave is very ill. The paper is in the Madras office & will, if necessary, be sent for. As the leave applied for by Mr. Russell is not on account of illness, the Current was not treated as urgent.
