Sir

In reply to your letter, dated 28th April 1892, forwarding to me, your comprehensive memo of suggestions for a better system of accounts in the Municipal Office, I wish to record the pleasure, that it has given me to see the very thorough way, in which you have overhauled the several Municipal Departments, and the valuable suggestions which you have recorded for their better working - the patience and tact, that you have displayed in securing the co-operation and concurrence of the several officials, in your reforms, is also most commendable.

I have the honour to be

I should be very glad indeed if even before the beginning of the next official year a little order of things could be introduced in the Office, and as Mr Brito has devoted much time and attention to the books that lay before him here and has given us so much valuable information, and so many invaluable suggestions, I feel sure that with the help of his recorded experiences and remarks we shall be able to introduce something like system and order where hitherto all has been Chaos and confusion.

In forwarding this report I take the opportunity to bring to the notice of Government the great and evident advantage Mr Brito has shown in meeting my wishes that my Assistants should study Practice work under him. For about 10 days at Chatham and 10 days at Tilbury my two Assistants worked steadily about eight hours a day with Mr Brito, and have both gained a most valuable insight into accounts, business a branch of the public service in which public servants are, as a rule, lamentably deficient. Mr Brito has a perfect knowledge for figures, and no pains were wanting on his part to make this opportunity for study as useful as possible. It gives me much pleasure also to record that both my Assistants threw themselves heartily into the work

Endorsement on an application for the post of Secretary to the Bangalore Municipal Office

To, Accountant General

This is an application from Mr Britto Asst. Inspr of Local Fund Accounts, for the post of Secretary to the Bangalore Municipality, pay Rs 300/- with a pension attached (I am given to understand). The reasons he gives are weakness of health caused by the pressure and endlessness of his work, and the desire for a stationary life near his family.

He is an excellent officer and will be a loss to us, but it is I believe a fact that his health has suffered through his devotion to his work, which has been unusual, as testified to by all the officers under whom he has served (Mssrs Chapman, Anthony and Burbridge) and I think he deserves the utmost to assist, and to have his application supported.

Anticipating your approval of this suggestion, I have recorded an official certificate to his character and work based on the entries in the confidential register of my branch, and on my own observation. If you agree the papers might be forwarded to the President of the Municipal Commission Bangalore with any endorsement you think necessary. The latest date fixed for the receipt of applications in Bangalore is the 15th December.

As he is in the Subordinate Accounts Service (Sl. II para 24 of our office list), I suppose the C.G. sanction to the transfer of his services would be necessary. If this is so, we need not perhaps take any action in this direction until it appears whether the Municipal Commission select Mr Britto. They could then apply for the loan of his services forwarded. Mr. Brito has been an Assistant Inspector of Local Fund Accounts for nearly 11 years and throughout that period has borne a reputation for extreme diligence, conscientiousness and honesty. He is also most methodical and business like and his conduct has always been exemplary. I should be very glad to see him improve his position, as he has no further prospects in this office.
