This is not borne out by the Circular in question above referred to. Apparently there has been some misconception of the order issued.

2. Steps have been taken to raise the tasks and to abolish the restrictions on finings, and the Govt has recently informed the F.C. that it has come to the conclusion that tasks now works have been inadequate.

FOR ORDERS.

The Finance Commr submits the remarks of the Collector of Kurnool on the P. W. D. fortnightly narrative referred for report in Order 3543 ¹²⁻⁷⁻⁹⁷

Two points were specifically mentioned in the narrative:

(1) Paymasters being instructed not to take any notice of fines imposed by the overseer unless sanctioned by the Collector or the D. A.

(2) The Lord Basko on the Banganapalle road, ~~on the~~ ^{between the} ~~Banganapalle road~~

As regards (1) the Collector says that no complaints were made to him at the time and that no such instructions were issued by him or his divisional officers. But ~~reference is~~ ^{reference is} ~~made to~~ ^{made to} ~~that~~ ^{that} sub. para 2 para 7 of Mr. Ghose's circular in which he says he has directed

We can say to one for the D. A. D. W. for information. No order seems to be required. Fining & Fasting however put on a right footing by recent orders.

ordered paymasters not to take notice of ~~fine~~ orders to impose fines on whole gangs.
 As the fine referred to in the P.W.D. narrative was on a whole gang the paymaster naturally
 refused to enforce it; the H.A.C.'s prohibition was subsequently withdrawn.

4. The Panyam Bangalore road is presumably the same as the Panyam work which forms the subject of the B.P.W. G. to $\frac{714}{20-8-97}$
 If so, the Subdy Engineer
 must have raised the deck
 from 1.1 to 2 c: ft on receipt of the Executive Engineer's narrative.
 The Finance Commr has since reduced it to 1.25 c: ft, the scheduled rate being 1.3 c: ft.
