SIR,

With reference to G. O. (P) No 732 dated 16th October 1896, I have the honor to forward herewith Copy of a letter No 1176/P.D. dated 2nd Instant; from the Dewan of Travancore from which it will be seen that for the purpose of determining the net Abkari Revenue realised by the British Government in the Periyar Jurisdiction, the Travancore Government has no objection to the deduction of charges being calculated from 1st October 1894, the date on which the Superintendent of Works issued temparary licensies for the sale of liquor.

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter Refno No 3464 dated 12th November regarding the date from which the deduction of charges from the Abkary Revenue realised by the British Government in the Periyar jurisdiction is to take effect.

Looking to the past correspondence, I find that in my D. O to the late Mr Grigg dated 15th September 1894, it was stated that the deductions would "take effect from the date the abkary revenue is collected by the British officers". The date here referred to is, I believe on which the notification appl the British Abkary act to the Periyar Camp was published in the Fort St George Gazette, as British Officers could collect the Abkary revenue only from that date. Having regard however to the Considerations on which the Concession was made His Highness' Government will have no objection to the deduction being made from the date on which the Superintendent & the marks issued temporary licenses for the Sale of liquor — that is the 11th October 1894.

FOR ORDERS.

Sept Rev No 4.

G.O Print. 50 dt 27th Jany 1897.

When the Abkari jurisdiction over the Periyar Camp was taken over by this Govt it was arranged that it should pay to the Travancore Durbar the nett Abkari revenue raised after deducting the cost incurred in realizing the revenue and in administering Police and Criminal Jurisdiction. This arrangement was to take effect from the 11th October 1894

2. Statements I & II appended to this order should show the gross revenue realized and the total charges incurred for the Travancore year ending 15th August 1895. It is observed that no expenditure was incurred in realizing the Abkari Revenue, and that the receipts and charges amounted to Rs 2,601—15—11 and 38 52 4—9—4 respectively. There is thus a deficit instead of a surplus, and no payment has therefore to be made to the Travancore Govt.

3. A copy of these Proceedings will be forwarded for the information of the Durbar.

From SHUNGRA SOOBYER, Dewan of Travancore, to the British Resident in Travancore and Cochin, dated Trivandrum, 2nd December 1896, No. 1176-P.D.

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter, Ref. on C. No. 3464, dated 12th November, regarding the date from which the deduction of charges from the abkári revenue realised by the British Government in the Periyár jurisdiction is to take effect.

Looking to the past correspondence, I find that in my Demi-official to the late Mr. Grigg, dated 15th September 1894, it was stated that the deductions would "take effect from the date the abkári revenue is collected by the British officers." The date here referred to is, I believe, that on which the modification applying the British Abkári Act to the Periyár camp was published in the Fort St. George Gazette, as British officers could collect the abkári revenue only from that date, Having regard, however, to the considerations on which the concession was made, His Highness' Government will have no objection to the deduction being made from the date on which the Superintendent of the Works issued temporary licenses for the sale of liquor—that is the 11th October 1894.
