For Orders

The Accountant-General

enquires whether acting allowances or sub postum allowances ~~should~~ be passed to persons acting for officers deputed on famine duty. He states that under the note to Art. 110 of the C. S. R., the latter ^{allowances} are admissible in all cases in which the deputation or temporary appointment is for six months or more. It having however been decided in 1877 that only acting allowances should be allowed in ^{acting for men} the case of officers deputed on famine duty, the A. C. asks whether it is the intention of Govt that the same rule should be enforced during the present famine.

it is the intention of Government that the same rule should be enforced during the present famine.

I beg that early orders may be passed on the question, as I am receiving claims for sub-pro-
-tem allowances from substitutes for officers on famine duty.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your Most obedient Servant,

H. Harris.
