Government in its order No 192 Public dated 16th March 95 having been pleased to exempt Mr R. A. Mathuram an Asst Inspector of the Salt Department, from examination by the Medical Board. Commenced in 1895, for the Competitive Examination for admission to the Madras Provincial Civil Service, apparently on the ground that he was previously examined by a Medical Board assembled for examining the Candidates selected for the Salt Competition

Examination, I beg to request that the the chief secretary to the Government same concession may be allowed to me this year.

I was examined in August 1896 by a medical Board & ^{having been} ~~was~~ certified to be physically fit for service in the Salt Department, I was admitted ~~to~~ the Competitive Examination held in December last, wherein I was successful.

Having passed the equitation test held in July last, I expect to be provided with an appointment soon and it would probably be difficult for me to be present at the medical Examination to be held in October 97, for admission to the ensuing Provincial Civil Service Examination, as I would have joined my new appointment only just then.

I am however sending a ~~medical~~ certificate from the Civil Surgeon here along with my application

Nelson collector's office.

Endorsement of the Public Deptt

Dated 11 September 1897.

FOR ORDERS.

Under para 6 of the Provincial Flag A. Civil Service Examination rules Candidates must appear before a Medical Board to be assembled by the Surgeon General and only such candidates as are certified by the Medical Board to be possessed of an exceptionally good physique and to be specially fitted for the active duties of a Revenue Officer will be admitted to the Examination.

V. K. Krishna Rao, an English Head clerk in the Nilgiri Collector's office, who wishes to compete at the Examⁿ to be held in December next says that he was passed by a Medical Board in August '96 in connexion with the competitive Examination for appointments in the Salt Dept^t and requests that he may be exempted from Examⁿ by the Medical Board accordingly.
