Simla, the 20th September 1897.

SIR,

I am directed to inform you that the practice of sending post copies of inland telegrams issued from this office will in future be discontinued. I am to add that post copies of messages addressed to this office are no longer required, except in cases in which, for any special reasons, it may be considered desirable to send them.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

Under-Secretary to the Government of India.
