FOR ORDERS.

As desired by the Hon member, the books and papers that may have to be referred to in introducing the Survey bill have been collected and are submitted herewith.

Attention is solicited to paras 2 and 3 of the B.P. printed on pages 1 and 2 of G.O. No 823 dy 18th Decr 1895 wherein is given a short precis of the correspondence relating to the proposed and existing legislation "~~subject~~", that took place on the subject up to the year 1890. The only orders issued subsequently are the G.O. above quoted and the one recently issued viz No 4 dy 4th Jany 1897. In the first of these the Board after criticising the draft sent up by the Board bill, drew up a revised draft and referred
