Collector and District Magistrate
North Arcot.

To

The Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue Madras.

Sir,

In the village of Thondavada in Chandrajini taluk, there is a public charitable tope standing on S. no. $\frac{867}{2}$, measuring 18 cents and assessed at Rs 0-2-0. The tope was dealt with by the then Commissioner and confirmed free in Title deed no. 2639 so long as the tope exists. It is reported that the present inamdar who is the purchaser of the tope, has cut and removed all the trees in the tope and has done nothing in spite of the several notices served upon him requiring him to plant fresh trees and improve the tope. The terms of the grant having been thus violated, I recommended that the inam may be resumed and the land fully assessed.

2. As the amount of full assessment payable on the tope inam land after its resumption is trifling, it cannot be spent on any specific charitable purpose.
The title deed issued for the inam is also reported to be not forth-coming.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
your most obedient servant (Signed) S. H. Wynne Collector.
