Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 114 T.F., dated the 16th June 1897, requesting that an authoritative ruling may be issued on the question of the liability to customs duty of Engine-room telegraphs for use on steamers for conveying orders from the Master of the vessel on the bridge to the Engineer in the Engine-room.

I am to say that in the opinion of the Government of India Engine-room telegraphs cannot be regarded either as component parts of machinery under No.14(0), or as sections of a ship under No.96 of schedule IV of the Act, and that they should be classed for assessment to duty under No.88 of the schedule.
