Note by the Revenue Secretary to Government
dated 21st Sept 1897

Please see annexed statement.
Judging from the numbers now on relief the expenditures for September I think 1.03 will be ample will be about Rs: 85000, so that measures relief is stopped by an estimate 1.03 lakhs for this in Ganjam.
September & October is not necessary. (Initialed) G. S.

Note by Hon Sir Henry Bliss R. C. S. & C. 23rd Sept 1897

I think the 2.33 asked for will be wanted - But give only 2.00 for the present.
The proposed telegram to India may be sent - They have had 3 weeks to think about giving us more money.
As to Mr Stokes remark below "measures relief is stopped by this in Ganjam" how is that? I have heard nothing to make me suppose it is so.
